Records of Adolphustown Town Meetings.

DAVIS.

Personal Notes.

The Davis Family.

The Davis Family.-- Henry Davis was one of the early town clerks and occupied that office several years. He was of English origin. He was a sergeant of 29th regiment during the war. He settled on a farm in the second concession, where he lived and died. His son Henry lived and died on the same farm, and was for years an officer elected by the town meeting. Archibald Campbell Davis, a son of Henry, was for years a member of the town and county councils; so was Peter, another son. Now, Nelson Davis, a son of Archibald C., is the Reeve of the Township and has been its representative in the County Council. Other members of the family have also taken an active part in municipal and political affairs, both in Adolphustown and Fredericksburg. The descendants are now quite numerous in the county. The family have been all Methodists and strongly Conservative in politics, and have been noted for activity and intelligence.

Jan 1, 1974

Dear Dr. Burleigh

I gathered that my father wasn't particularly pleased that his ancestor had been in the British Army. Well, be that as it may, it seems to be a good joke.

I also found 2 more Henry Davis' listed in Caniff's Book - in the 2nd Battalion - King's Royal Regiment 1784. I suppose they are not "provable" or traceable?

Thank you for your letter of Dec. 6
I made some notes about the family tree and took Andrew Davis and Jane Roblin right off.

Andrew would be a great great uncle rather than the great grand father.

I hope it isn't too confused.

I'll wait until you've forwarded
the additional information before I send in the regular application for U.E.L. membership.

I'm still hoping to do it
through the Davis family line.

Sincerely

John NORRIS.

Andrew Davis - married to Jane Roblin
(1801-1876) is a mother of Henry Jr. (1796-1876)

Was 1876 a bad year?

I have no record of Jane's parents
but assume they are the first settlers on the Roblin's point property. Stephen or John.
(the ancestors of Bill Roblin and Read Roblin)
I think there are 2 Roblin properties.

Andrew and Jane had Wilmet Davis (a son)
and 3 daughters - Olive, Cecelia, Matilda
(I can't make out the girls names
very well.) OLIVIA, MAHALIA, CECILIA (from another reference)

There are 2 or 3 other Davis-Roblin marriages

① Mary Catherine Davis, 1824-1906 married Cyrus Roblin - and they had a son William

Mary Catherine is the daughter of Henry Davis Jr.
and Sarah Campbell.

② Sarah Davis 1848
daughter of Archibald & Mary Ann Stifford married Steve Roblin (I think he is a son of Cyrus above.)

and had one son Merton Roblin.
who was a "hero" of my father
when he was young.
